7. NORMALISATION OF THE MARKS:

The raw marks for single session paper and normalized marks for multi session paper will be used for computing Merit Index, which is a common benchmark for generating merit for candidates from different Exam Groups.

8. CALCULATION OF MERIT INDEX FOR ALL PAPERS:

In order to generate a common merit list comprising of candidates who gave examination from different exam groups, but eligible for a common post, merit index will be computed. For all papers for which there is only one session, actual marks obtained by the candidates will be used for calculating merit index, while for papers in multi sessions; normalized marks will be calculated corresponding to the raw marks obtained by a candidate and the merit index will be calculated based on the normalized marks.

The Merit Index will be computed using the formula given below:

$$\text{Merit Index} = \frac{Sq + (St - Sq) \frac{M - Mq}{Mt - Mq}}$$

(Merit Index is the relative score of candidates within the discipline.)

M: Marks obtained by the candidate (actual/raw marks for single session exam and normalized marks for multi session exam).

Mq: The qualifying marks for general category candidate in the paper (40).

Mt: The mean marks of top 0.1% or top 10 whichever is larger of the candidates who appeared in the paper (in case of multi session exam including all session).

Sq: 350 is the score assigned to Mq.

St: 900 is the score assigned to Mt.

The qualification marks (Mq) for general category candidates in 40.

The merit Index will be calculated for UR, SC, ST candidates whose actual marks for single session exam and normalized marks for multi session exam are equal or above the community qualifying marks prescribed in Para 6, Part-A(a) as above. Based on the Merit Index generated, a combined merit list of the candidate of different disciplines /Exam Group will be prepared in the descending order of merit and the allotment of the preference will be done on the basis merit list.

9. COMPUTER BASED APTITUDE TEST (CBAT):

Qualifying marks: The candidate needs to secure a minimum score of 42 marks in each of the test batteries to qualify. This is applicable to all candidates and no relaxation is permissible.

Candidates equal to 8 time number of ALP vacancies for each of the communities i.e. UR, SC and ST shall be short listed for Computer Based AT (based on their performance in CBT subject to their qualifying CBT).

File No. SECR-BSP0PERS(MISC)/304/2022-O/o Sr.DPO/BSP/SECR

Candidates will have to qualify in each of the test battery of Computer Based AT for considering them the post of ALP. The Computer Based Aptitude Test shall have questions answer option only in English and Hindi. There shall be no negative marking in Computer Based AT.

The ALP merit list will be drawn only from amongst the candidates qualifying in the Aptitude Test, with 70% weightage for the marks obtained in the CBT and 30% weightage for the marks obtained in computer Based AT.
